Dear Valued Friends and Members of ATNI,

We are inviting your sponsorship to the Affiliated Tribes of Northwest Indians (ATNI) Mid Year Conference scheduled May 17-20, 2010 and held in the Grand Ronde, Oregon. ATNI's success is built on the partnerships made from sponsorships in the development of our conferences.

We anticipate a large turn-out of our 57 member tribes and other tribal and governmental representatives from across the United States. The four-day conference provides a forum to assist Tribes in their governmental development consistent with their goals for self-determination and self-sufficiency.

We are seeking your participation and sponsorships for this conference and would appreciate your assistance!

We will use your logo, mention your name. Other benefits include; (depending on the level of sponsorship)

- The opportunity to interact and make personal contacts with over 300 representatives of the Northwest's most progressive tribes, 200 technical staff and key constituents
- The placement of promotional materials and ads in the conference program, along with other advertising opportunities
- The identification of new customers, subcontractors, and strategic partners
- Receiving vendor space
- Complementary registration
- Speaking opportunities, and much more

Sponsorship levels are $2,000 to $10,000. Please see attached sponsorship package for further details.

We appreciate your continued support and investment into ATNI and look forward to a great conference.

Thank you for your consideration!

For questions, please contact Cleora Scott at 503-249-5770
